Dear THOMAS HUGH ELLIS,

Congratulations! You have completed Phase 1 of the Basic Level in the WINGS - Pilot Proficiency Program.

Along with the sense of accomplishment you feel, this achievement satisfies the requirement for a Flight Review. (See 14 CFR Part 61.56(e)).

If you have not already done so, I encourage you log into the <https://www.faasafety.gov/WINGS/pub/vendors/vrl.aspx> page at FAASafety.gov and claim your rewards.

Currently available rewards are:

- A set of wings from Avemco (land planes) Available only the first time you earn a Basic, Advanced and/or Master Level.
- A set of wings from the Sea Plane Pilots Association (sea planes) Available only the first time you earn a Basic, Advanced and/or Master Level.
- A chance to win a cash prize in the WINGS Industry Advisory Committee's sweepstakes Available every time you earn a Phase of WINGS at any Level.

I also invite you to return to FAASafety.gov frequently to check for new and revised online courses, use the online resources for pilots and mechanics, and review the list of events and activities happening in your area..

Please start planning your next phase of WINGS now. Regular proficiency training with WINGS will keep you confident, capable and safe. Keeping your WINGS current will keep you on top of your game!

Once again, we congratulate you on your achievement.
